Things to remember:

1. This trip is on a first come first served basis. We must have 40 paying students and parents per bus to add a new bus. There could be a waiting list—receipt date of deposit will be recorded.
2. Students will be placed into groups with a parent for day time explorations and be assigned to a room in the hotel at night.
3. The cost of the trip covers everything except passport card or booklet and spending money.
4. We will be riding motor coach buses with DVD players.
5. All parents wishing to attend must have finger print records on file with Wayne Local Schools.
6. A photocopy of a current passport booklet or passport card must be submitted to Mrs. Boggs by March 1.

Questions: kboggs@wayne-local.com

Please return with $150 deposit (per person) to Karen Boggs by November 9

Academic Requirements for Toronto Trip 2012

Per administrative guidelines, students participating in the Toronto trip must meet the following academic requirements. Failure to meet these requirements will result in a cancellation of the trip.

A student may not have any “F’s” on their 2nd Quarter or 3rd Quarter report card of the current school year.

A student may not have any “F’s” on their 4th Quarter mid-term of the current school year.

Any cancellation of a trip does not entitle the student and/or parents to a full refund. Money will be refunded based on costs that have not yet been incurred by Crosswell Student Tours.

Students are required to check with teachers BEFORE the trip to determine any work that needs to be completed as a result of their absence. Alternate due dates for projects/assignments will be established by the teacher. Students are responsible for finding out these new due dates and adhering to them.
