Positive Behavior

Congratulations to the following students whose names were drawn for having no office or bullying referrals. These students received a notebook courtesy of Staples and coupon to Golden Corral: Natalie Woods, Aiden Bailey, Kaylei Ford-Nelson, Jared Greer, Chloe Plummer, and Seth Sturgill. These students received a $10 Wal-Mart Card: Trinity Laymaster and Emma Philpot. Roslyn Papetti received an iPod Shuffle all courtesy of the Elementary Principal's Fund.

Cincy Spelling Bee

On February 19 Kate Von Handorf competed in the 2011 WCPO-TV Regional Spelling Bee in Cincinnati. The field of spellers was narrowed this year by an online spelling qualifying round. Kate competed against 72 fourth to eighth grade spellers from schools all over the region. Kate placed FIFTH in the competition. We are so proud of our 2011 Champ! She is the daughter of Joy and Jeff Von Handorf. Way to go, Kate!

Science Fair - March 31

Students have been learning about the scientific process. Grades 4-5 students will have their Science Fair projects judged during the afternoon and displayed in the Elementary Gym. The projects will be on display for the public from 6:30-7:30 PM. Ribbons will be awarded on this basis: Blue-Superior; Red-Excellent; White-Good. This is a required project for 5th grade and optional project for 4th grade. If you are interested in being a judge, contact Cady Bunn at cbunn@wayne-local.com, Kendall Hart at khart@wayne-local.com, or the school office at 897-2761.
