- With parent permission, students may leave after last exam for the day, not in between exams (once a student arrives to school, they must stay until last exam)
- If a student does not want to take more than 2 exams, please see the 3rd or 6th period teacher to move to another time or make-up exam /intervention period.
- Students do not have to stay for lunch if they do not have a 3rd or 6th period exam.
- Students do not have to stay for the intervention period unless they need help and have scheduled it with a teacher.
- Student may work with an individual teacher to determine a time for a make-up exam.
- Double blocked classes are only one of the two periods. The teacher may decide which period the exam will be given.
- Students must stay the entire 1 1/2 hour exam period in the classroom.
- If students stay for lunch and the afternoon, they must report to a study hall in the library until the buses arrive at 2:35 on Wednesday & Thursday, 12:35 on Friday.
